

Assistant Acting Instructor Needed for Sarah Hall Theatre Company

Sarah Hall Theatre Company, one of the fastest growing youth theatre programs in the north shore of Chicago, offers excellent theatre instruction to children of all ages as well as adults. SHTC is currently looking for a talented and qualified Assistant Acting Instructor to assist with theatre classes beginning in late August 2023.. All candidates must have a strong background and passion for theatre and teaching, as well as their own car. Applicants that are interested in long-term growth opportunities are a plus! Classes may take place in Glencoe, Highland Park, Deerfield, and/or Chicago.

Responsibilities include:

- Assist in all classroom activities/games
- Be alert to student's needs and respond appropriately
- Aide head teacher with all classroom management duties
- Contribute to a collaborative learning environment and communicate effectively
- Contribute ideas and talents to the classroom
- Help with final performance or in-class demonstration at the end of each 12-14 week session

Qualifications include:

- Four or more years of theatre training
- Experience working with children
- Must be dependable, punctual, energetic, patient, and professional
- All applicants MUST have own car for transportation

Compensation is commensurate on experience; classes typically run 75-120 minutes long.

For more information on our company and classes, go to: www.sarahhalltheatre.com