

Improv and Acting Instructors Needed for Sarah Hall Theatre Company

Sarah Hall Theatre Company, one of the fastest growing youth theatre programs in the north shore of Chicago, offers excellent theatre instruction to children of all ages as well as adults. SHTC is currently looking for talented and qualified Improv and Acting instructors to teach improv and theatre classes beginning in January, 2022. All candidates must have a strong background and passion for improvisation, theatre, and teaching; applicants that are interested in long-term growth opportunities are a plus! All classes take place in Glencoe and/or Winnetka. Classes run consecutively on Thursdays, 3:15pm-8:00pm, with short breaks between classes, and Mondays, 2:50-4:00pm.

Responsibilities include:

- Lead all classroom activities/games
- Create curriculum for 10 week session
- Be alert to student's needs and respond appropriately
- Contribute to a collaborative learning environment and communicate effectively
- Contribute ideas and talents to the classroom
- Lead final performance at the end of each 10 week session

Qualifications include:

- Three or more years of Improv training
- Experience working with children
- Must be dependable, punctual, energetic, patient, and professional
- All applicants MUST have own car for transportation

Compensation is commensurate on experience; classes typically run 60 minutes long.

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter and resume to: info@sarahhalltheatre.com by December 1, 2021.

For more information on our company and classes, go to: www.sarahhalltheatre.com